

Blizzard Member Accomplishments

Apprentice Instructor - Rainbow Certification

David lann

Kristen lensen

Michelle Jondahl

Many choose the Apprentice Instructor Program during their Blizzard years, but only a select few pass the prestigious Rainbow Exam, demonstrating excellence in technical knowledge, teaching skills and personal skiing or snowboarding. Using today's standards, this is between PSIA/ AASI-Level 1 & 2 certification. Congratulations!

1960's Chuck Meek

1970's Dave Glantz Cathy McGoldrick Mary McGoldrick Liisa Rasula John Tripp

Scott Anderson Brian Blackader Molly Brandt Adrienne Crewson Alison Eichten Ben Fabel Jennifer Farni Ryan Gabriel Merris Gullickson Matt Headrick Marc Headrick Chris Hoden Kate Houston

Laura Lemke Dan Lemke Emily Littlefield lasmine Lok Kyle Nelson Shane Nelson Carrie Pearson Chrissy Peterson Jessica Rooney Kevin Shields Megan Shields Kerra Struthers Jessica Woolery

Grant Boerhave Dave Clark Wynn Cronje Elizabeth Dickson Tressie Ebert Peter Ellingboe Jenny Farenholtz Rachel Farenholtz Ben Fincham Ben Fornell David Goodman Geoff Gullickson Adam Hosfield Erik Jensen Gregg Johnson Nikki Jondahl Tori Knoss

10+ years Tony Anthonisen Diane Gove Mike Gove Gary Groven Heidi Groven Mary Beth Gullickson Merris Gullickson Diane Hemstad Adam Hosfield Heather Hosfield Dan Ostgaard Sue Prok John Schweitzer

Kate Shamblott

Patti Thaden Betsy Wolfe Guy Wray 15+ years Randy Bell

Bob Thaden

Scott Furey Mike Headrick

Rick Hosfield John Huston Niels lensen Dave Johnson John Kerber Dan Lemke

Bob and LouAnne Carruthers

Blizzard Through the Ages A Look Back on 50 Years with Blizzard

Blizzard Ski & Snowboard School's 50th Anniversary Memory Book is a small attempt to capture and share with you a half-century of passion for teaching snowsports. Blizzard instructors and chaperones have dedicated 50 years to creating thousands of lifetime skiers and snowboarders. Since 1958, Blizzard members have been developing their minds, challenging their bodies, and riding the edge. They have not only learned to literally ride the edges of their skis and snowboards, but also to grow the limits of their personal responsibility, mental toughness, and physical skills. We hope you enjoy this 50th Anniversary Memory Book, and we look forward to many more years sharing our lifelong commitment to snowsports with the entire Blizzard Family. See you on the slopes!

Jeff & Jennifer Lewin, Directors

Caitlyn McCarthy Dana Norris Katie Pearce Chloe Quinn Sean Rocheford Katie Tripp

John VanStraaten Matt Westrum

Tim Werts

Sam Wilder

James Zelubowsk

1990's

Top Black/Gold/Silver (Ski) & Black (Snowboard)

Very few Blizzard members achieve the elite color levels of Top Black skiers or Black snowboarders. Through hard work and dedication, these members succeeded. Congratulations!

1960's Dave Hanske

Steve Hanske Tom Hanske Cathy McGoldrick Mary McGoldrick

1970's Gary Blix lean Hanske Susan McGoldrick Jay Rasula Jim Rooney

1980's

Denise Aasen Charles Fairhurst Shawn Foy Andre Gauger Erik Gauger lonell lohnson Bart Hawkins Ross Hawkins Ed Knutson Ted Knutson Jeff Lewin Kate Lewin Tom Nordly Dan Parchetta John Purdie Mike Rendahl Todd Rendahl Burke Whitney Josh Whitney Pete Zubert

Brian Blackader Geoffrey Gullickson Jeff Hoden Adam Hosfield Kyle Nelson Kirsten Jensen Michelle londah Ben Kennedy Dave Kerber Dan Lemke Ross Peterson Alison Proisy lessica Rooney Chad Shenk Peter Shenk Peter Werts Jessica Woolery

2000's

Tucker Anderson Steve Andres Andrew Bethune Hailey Bork Clare Dahl Laura Dyste Nels Dyste Cale Farhenholtz Rachel Fahrenholtz Dave Fisher Ben Fornell Kaitlyn Gehrke Jenna Gove Mark Green Elizabeth Guest Andrew Hanske James Hanske Ben Hanson

Erin Hosfield Lindsay Irrthum Laura Jensen Grea lohnson Andy Jondahl Nikki Jondahl Zach Lies Willie Maahs Caitlyn McCarthy John Meeker Thor Morales Eric Nancekivel Ian Nancekivell Connor Obrien Paul O'Neill Amy Prok Chloe Quinn Tony Reuvers Erik Richardson Eli Robiner David Sayre Matthew Sears Lauren Simpson Ben Skallerud Katie Skallerud Colin Snowberg Cameron Sutherland Becca Tripp Katie Tripp Charly Webber Tim Werts Matt Westrum Sam Wilder Collin Young lames Zelubo

Blizzard Instructors & Chaperones by Years of Service

Thank you to everyone who has shared their love of snowsports with the Blizzard members over the last 50 years. Congratulations!

leff Lewin Caren Nash Dan Parchetta Ron Richardson Virg Senescall Dave Werts

20+ years

- Denise Aasen Paul Aasen Vince Cronje Bill Horgan Jeff Huenecke Jonell Johnson Bruce Jondahl
- Linda Lemke Donovan Nash Phil Montville Jay Rasula Linda Rasula

30+ years

Susie Hatch lack Parchetta Mary Parchetta Jim Rooney Bill Shenk

40+ years Tom Hanske Dave Nelson Lynda Shenk John Tripp

50 years Walt Rasula

* Thank you to everyone who contributed to our historical research. We apologize for any omissions or incorrect information. Please send us your corrections so we can update our records and a future printing.

Significant events of the decade...

2000 Bush v. Gore: The U.S. Supreme Court stops the Florida presidential recount, effectively giving the state, and the Presidency, to George W. Bush.

2001 Almost 3,000 are killed in the September 11 attacks at the World Trade Center in New York City, The Pentagon in Arlington, Virginia, and in rural Shanksville, Pennsylvania.

2002 The United States Department of Justice announces it will pursue a criminal investigation of Enron.

2003 Martha Stewart and her broker are indicted for using privileged investment information and then obstructing a federal investigation. Stewart also resigns as chairperson and chief executive officer of Martha Stewart Living.

2004 The Boston Red Sox win the World Series for the first time since 1918, breaking the Curse of the Bambino.

2005 At least 1,836 are killed, and severe damage is caused along the U.S. Gulf Coast, as Hurricane Katrina strikes coastal areas from Louisiana to Alabama, and travels up the entire state of Mississippi (flooding coast 31 feet/10 m), affecting most of eastern North America.

2006 Saddam Hussein, former Iraq president, is executed in Baghdad.

2007 The I-35W Mississippi River Bridge collapses at 6:05 pm CST during the later part of rush hour, killing 13 people.

2008 Barack Obama wins the U.S. presidential election and becomes the first African American to be elected president of the United States.

The Early Years of Blizzard: From A Crazy Idea to A Thriving Reality Blizzard Ski School began in 1958 from a dream and a passion for skiing by Bob & LouAnne Carruthers. Bob was a manufacturer's representative for ski wear and traveled the country selling his goods. His real joy was skiing. He came up with the concept for Blizzard, and started with the 1958–59 season. In 1959, with a handshake, Blizzard became the official ski school for Dayton's department store, one of the largest retailers in Minneapolis at the time. The club expanded to the retailer's locations in St. Paul, St. Cloud and Rochester. At the peak, Blizzard rose to nearly 1200 members.

The first Blizzard trips had three buses at Parade Stadium, near downtown Minneapolis. The group traveled to Lockhaven, an area in Wisconsin, or took the train and horse drawn sleighs to Trollhaugen in Dresser, WI, or skied at Telemark. In Blizzard's second year, they added a trip to Mount Du Lac in Duluth. The buses met at 5:30am and returned at 8pm. The area was low on snow so they scraped snow off the lake and trucked it in to the slopes! Based on an article from the Minneapolis Tribune in 1964, Blizzard had grown to a ski school with 20 weekly bus stops. The annual membership fee was $28, plus the weekly trip fees of $3 for the lift ticket and round-trip transportation (sleigh ride included!).

Bob's vision for Blizzard grew as he added out-west trips for teens and families in the 1960's to Aspen, Snowmass, Whitefish Mountain and Lake Louise in Canada. But the best trip was always to Winter Park in Colorado. The group would drive to Des Moines, Iowa, take the train to Chicago then Denver, and lastly, take a bus from Denver to Winter Park. A lengthy travel process, but well worth it for the incredible mountain skiing.

Bob's passion for skiing didn't stop there. He wanted to spread the joy to kids across the country. He began Blizzard clubs in Detroit and Milwaukee, which are still running today. He had a vision for franchising the Blizzard name and program and talked about this goal with his friend, Bill McGoldrick. After 1965, Bill McGoldrick acquired franchising rights for Blizzard and started clubs in Los Angeles, San Francisco, Chicago and Boston. At one point, Bill's son, Brian, ran the San Francisco club.

Unfortunately, in the summer of 1965, Bob passed away in a tragic airplane crash. He was traveling for his ski clothing rep business using his own plane, when, it's presumed, he had a fatal heart attack. Due to a loving wife, strong friendships and a shared love for Bob's vision on the slopes, a group of Bob's friends and Blizzard instructors, continued the dream by becoming the next owners. The club was divided into five groups with Bill Horgan as the overall Director: Lake (Minnetonka Area) run by Walt Rasula; Metro (Mpls and suburbs) run by Bob Blix; South (Edina/Bloomington) run by Dave Nelson; St.Paul/Rochester run by Jerry Barfuss; and Rochester/Owatanna run by Geroge Lamb. Jim Anderson and Jim Sugimura provided additional support. Each club went to a different area each week continuing to bring the joy of skiing to thousands of kids.

How much did it cost in '05? first-class stamp. gallon of regular gas: $1.21 $3.09 dozen eggs: gallon of milk:

1958-1968

"I can't remember a Saturday in ten years when I haven't been surrounded by hundreds of kids. My work fits in with everything lenjoy doing."

Bob Carruthers, Querer 1959-1966

the 5K1 5HO

Vol. 1 No. 2. Nov. 15, 1959

Blizzard Ski_Club organized

Bob Carruthers over-all director

All the thrills, the heady excitement and the healthy glamor of learning to ski well can be your Christmas gift to your youngster this year.

aylon's

Downtown

The Ski Shop, Dayton's Downtown, is offering for the first time in the Midwest, memberships in the Blizzard Ski Club supervised by the Denver Ski authority, Bob Carruthers. These memberships are open to. all classes of skiers from the eager novice and intermediate to the most advanced competitive racers. Instruction for each category is planned for concrete results in the shortest time possible according to the individual abilities of the members.

"Prime purpose of the club," according to Carruthers, "is to teach boys and girls to ski safely and well under complete supervision in their classes, at the area, and during the transportation period from the time they leave the meeting place until they return."

All instruction groups are limited to not more than ten pupils to assure the maximum personal attention to each member. For new members in The beginner classification, instruction begun immediately with the basic rundamentals on the level. As the student improves, he is advanced to gentle hills, and by degrees, he is promoted to the tows, intermediate trails and finally to the advanced areas.

I became a member of Blizzard in 1963 when Dayton's department store was associated with the club. I will always be fond of Trollhaugen because it was the first place I ever skied. They used to dress up one of the ski patrols as a troll and if you could catch him you won a prize. Now that

Susie Hatch, Blizzard kid in the 1960's; Blizzard instructor for 30+ years

My Blizzard "claim to fame" is that I was the only Blizzard member to be enrolled in both the Saturday and . Sunday programs in 2007-08! Athena Feldshon, Blizzard Member for 3 years; currently 16 years old

The teachers are nice, understanding and very cooperative. If you're left fooled and they're right, they'll do their very best to show you your way. They make it look easy. Trevor Lyon, Blizzard Member for 3 years; currently 11 years old

I love skiing at Powder Ridge. My instructor Kate had secret places where you can snowboard in the trees. After Blizzard, I like to enjoy a nice relaxing fire and a little N.

Kelsey Carrabre, Blizzard member for 3 years; currently 9 years old

I really like the teaching part. There's nothing better than taking a group of seven year olds that can't even walk with their gear on at the start of the season, to bring able to take them on Black Diamonds and the park and watching Erin Rooney, Blizzard kid in the 1990's; Blizzard instructor 2004-present them fly!

Significant Blizzard Events

2004 Jen and Jeff Lewin buy Blizzard (Jeff was a Blizzard member since age 10 and instructor for 19 years!) Accept credit card payments New programs: Sunday program, Parent program, Teen Nights, Private Lessons & Snowboard Team Blizzard New Logo! New Website! New Email! New Phone Number! Back to the green uniforms! New Address! Website registrations and weekly online trip reservations

My favorite person in Blizzard is Jeff Lewin (current Blizzard owner). He's a cool boss!

tobbie Newtson, Blizzard kid in the 1990's; Blizzard instructor 2006-present

Bill Horgan (future Blizzard Owner, far left) and friends in Whitefish, MT, 1960's

My current Blizzard "claim to fame" is that I'm the "Bus Duy". My proudest one is that I was the youngest Blizzard member to reach Sop Black at twelve years old, in 1967.

Tom Hanske, Blizzard kid in the 1960's; Blizzard instructor for 40+ years

Marty Thiede represents Blizzard & Dayton's in the National Junior Alpine Championships, Jackson Hole, March 1963

1959 Became Dayton's Department Store Ski Program 1964 From an article in Minneapolis Star newspaper: Blizzard had about 1000 members, 14 local bus stops, 20 buses each work $28 members, 14 local bus stops, 20 buses each week, $28 membership fee; $3 trip fee for lift

1968 Apprentice Instructor program started ticket and bus

George Wilson, Walt Heustis and others represent Blizzard & Dayton's in the National Junior Alpine Championships,

Significant Blizzard Events

"I am sure we, as well as past and present men bers of the club, will very often turn our thoughts to him before we push off down the slopes and say "Thanks, Bob, for helping make this possible." Well Resule, Owner 1960*, speaking of Bob Carrythers, upon Bob see

"Blizzards" Take to Snow Trails

Board members of the Blizzard ski club, Minneapolis, Minn., have extensive experience in skiing and work in the ski shops to assist all new members in choosing their equipment. Left to right are Gary Comstock, Southdale, John Suzuki, St. Paul, seated, Steve Meads, Minneapolis, Steve Zizanko, St. Paul, Scott Jones, Southdale, Pat Mossat, Southdale, Chuck Meek, Minneapolis. The board members also function as representatives to those interested in joining the club.

Significant events of the decade...

1958 Instant noodles go on sale for the first time

1.1

1959 United States redesigns flag so it now has 50 stars

1960 Black students stage a sit-in at a lunch counter in Greensboro, NC to protest segregated seating at the establishment.

1961 "Barbie" gets a boyfriend when the "Ken" doll is introduced.

$0.53 $0.95

How much did it cost in 65?

first-class stamp. gallon of regular gas:

dozen eggs: gallon of milk. 1964 First lung transplant

1965 The Sound of Music is released. It is the best play since Gone with the Wind.

1966 Star Trek, a dominant science fiction television series, premiered on NBC.

1967 The first compact microwave oven for U.S. home use is introduced by "Amana" Refrigeration.

1962 Marilyn Monroe dies, apparently from an overdose of sleeping pills

A new millennium! Excitement! Terror! What to do? Never fear, Blizzard will always be here for ski and snowboard diehards. Despite all the changes in the world and the technology boom and bust, Blizzard survives and keeps up with it all. A new owner (former Blizzard kid, Apprentice Instructor and Rainbow), a new logo; new payment options, new address, new phone number, new website, new email and the newest change – online registration and weekly registrations! It's all new, yet somehow, it's the same familiar family on the same familiar slopes sharing the passion with over 800 kids every week.

That is the legacy and the future of Blizzard – move ahead, stay true to the sport, spread the passion, keep the family engaged, build lifelong memories and always Ride the Edge!

It seems Blizzard has always been a part of my life. I remember flying somewhere when I was a little kid and my sister pointed out that the pilot was wearing a Blizzard cap. I think he used to be an instructor. Since Jennifer and I have become the owners (and hence drive a vehicle with "Blizzard" plastered all over it), strangers routinely come up to us and say things like: "I used to be in Blizzard! What a great program!" Blizzard really has changed thousands of lives for the better. From the time our neighbors, Dan and Emily Goldner, recruited my sister and me to join Blizzard, I couldn't wait for the next Saturday trip and a chance to earn a coveted testing slip. I still remember pivotal lessons from many of our current Classic instructors. Like the time I first learned about "rebound" from Dave Nelson at Birch Park. Or the time Jim Rooney taught us "tip rolls" at Frontenac. Or when Tom Hanske had us skating like mad – straight down Chicken at Welch. Walt Rasula taught us Apprentice Instructors how to teach the sport we loved, and I was able to earn a living on three continents as a professional skier.

2000-2008

These days, Jennifer and I enjoy late nights together in the Blizzard office and I get to spend weekends on the snow with our children, Max, Simon and Devra. Blizzard is a huge part of my life, thanks to those who established this legacy for us. I hope our efforts to continue and strengthen Blizzard prepare this wonderful extended family for another 50 years and beyond. We aren't the first and we won't be the last, but for the time being we are greatly honored to own Blizzard. See you on the slopes!

Jeff & Jen Lewin, Owners, 2004-present

My favorite thing about Blizzard is bonding with my two daughters. Blizzard was always a family affair. It's hard to imagihe what life would It's hard to imagihe what life would be without Blizzard. John Tripp, Blizzard instructor for 40+ years

Significant events of the decade...

1990 The first known World Wide Web page is written.

1991 Gulf War: Operation Desert Storm begins with air strikes against Iraq.

1992 The largest shopping mall in the US, Minnesota's Mall of America is constructed on 78 acres (316,000 m²).

1993 The Great Blizzard of 1993 strikes the eastern U.S., bringing record snowfall and other severe weather all the way from Cuba to Québec; it is reported to have killed 184.

> 1997 Diana, Princess of Wales, is taken to hospital after a car crash shortly after midnight in the Pont de l'Alma road tunnel in Paris. She is pronounced dead at 04:00.

1994 The long-running American sitcom Friends premieres on NBC, eventually becoming part of NBC's Must See TV comedy blocks on Thursdays.

1995 DVD, an optical disc computer storage media format, is announced.

1996 October 14 - The Dow Jones Industrial Average gains 40.62 to close at 6,010.00, the Dow's first close above 6,000.

1998 Google, Inc. is founded in Menlo Park, California, by Stanford University Ph.D. candidates Larry Page and Sergey Brin.

1999 Computer Age: Y2K preparation was a major event in 1999 both in actual events and in media reporting.

Blizzard keeps right on truckin'. Back to independent, local ownership with Bill Horgan; a new logo reflecting the times and the beginning of the treasured annual Blizzard yearbook highlighting its 1200 members. Did you get your weekly trip information from the Blizzard Caller?

My favorite memories from my tenure as director of the Blizzard Ski School are the wonderful western trips to Big Mountain, Summit County and Jackson Hole that we took with fellow instructors. I treasure my associations with the instructors and all the other friends that were responsible for operating those five clubs.

How much did it cost in '95? first-class stamp: gallon of regular gas: $0.88 $2.48 dozen eggs: gallon of milk:

Groovy, man! Disco is in! Saturday Night Fever is hot! With Suzy Chapstick steaming up the slopes, and free-doggers pushing the edge with innovation like the worm turn, skiing becomes a $16 billion dollar industry with 35 million skiers according to Skiing magazine! Plus, who doesn't love ballet skiing?

Bill Horgan, Dwner 1966-1972, 1974-1984

SCHOOL DAYS TO REMEMB MINNESOTA LEGACI

Significant Blizzard Events

YESTERDAY

1972 Blizzard MN and national franchising rights sold to Winterset, a group of accountants/investors 1974 Winterset sold Blizzard MN to Bill Horgan, previous Blizzard owner New Blizzard logo - Circle shaped with the Blizzard rainbow on the top and skier underneath Beginning of the Blizzard yearbook

I had my first powder skiing experience with Blizzard on a teen trip to Jackson Hole in 1974. It was amazing. My Blizzard "claim to fame" was crashing. The skied hard and fast, were competitive and took risks with trees and powder. I've had both hips and my aCL replaced, and my shoulder reconstructed all due to skiing. But it's totally worth it. Skiing is the absolute best thing in my life. Jim Rooney, Blizzard kid in the 1960's-1970's; Blizzard instructor for 30+ years

(612) 934-8019

Dave

12/6/92 Just a short note to thank you for the second climic on Sunday. It's my Third year in Bloggard and Sunday's clinic was clearly the best & have participated in The pace was just night and your critical eye was very helpful! Thanks !! I currently work at Moonlight Basin ski area in Mon-tana as an Event Coordinator. I taught ski lessons one day at Moonlight because a class was double booked. I was qualified to teach because of my apprentice Instruc-tor and Rainbow experience. I know I could still return to Blizzard and find arms wide open to welcome me Michelle Jondahl, Blizzard kid in the 1990's

Welcome to the 1991-92 Ski Seas BOX 1066 MINNETONKA, MN. 550 Significant Blizzard Events Jay & Linda Rasula buy Blizzard from Jay's parents, Walt & Mary Rasula Walt & Mary Rasula Started using calling service instead of "Blizzard Caller" kids Pre-printed bus sheets Snowboard program begins New Blizzard logo – with a skier and snowboarder added inside My best memory from Blizzard was each time Kachel Hahrenholtz and I perfectly timed our last run so we Itahrenholtz the bus exactly at the latest possible time. It had learned this skill from observing our older Itahers and sisters from years before! - Remember, Blizzard is the best because YOU ARE THE BEST !!!!

- Be on time !!! Plan to be at the stakes five minutes early for each lesson session. - Be positive and HAPPY !! If you're not excited to teach your class we will find some-

As a kid, I loved the Fun Days when everyone wore costumes! My favorite ared was Trollhaugen because we could slide down the hill at night on the food trays! Now, it's about the friendships. Gary Blix, Blizzard kid in the 1970's (Dad owned Blizzard in the 1960's-1970's); Current Blizzard Instructor

BLIZZARD TEACHING BASICS

"1975"

"Basic Teaching Policies for Success!"

- Have a teaching plan for your class. Have a purpose or goal for each activity you want your student to do. The general goal is to have fun and improve their abilities

- Tell your students the truthabout their ability. Give test slips only when you

- Blizzard lessons last an hour and one half. End your class on time with something instructive and fun(i.e., human slalom or group synchronization)

If someone told me I was going to die in 48 hours, I would have to spend that time skiing. Dave Nelson, Director of Skiing; Blizzard instructor since 1962

Significant events of the decade...

1970 Ziploc bags are created.

1971 Intel Corporation built the first microprocessor.

1972 The last U.S. ground troops are withdrawn from Vietnam.

1973 The U.S. Supreme Court rules that advertisements for employment cannot specify gender.

1974 On December 19 Nelson Rockefeller is sworn in as 41st Vice President of the United States.

1975 First McDonald's drive-thru is created.

1976 Apple Computer is founded in a California garage by Stephen G. Wozniak and Steven Jobs.

1978 Kimberly Clark introduces Huggies disposal diapers. They have an elastic waist that will fit all infants.

1979 The Walkman Cassette Player introduced by Sony Corp. is a $200 pocket stereo with a pair of earphones.

1977 Rock music pioneer Elvis Presley dies at his Memphis mansion, Graceland, August 16. He is only 42.

The 1990's were about transitions – moving Blizzard ownership from father to son; moving from straight skis to the new-fangled shaped things (why so short?); and snowboarding becomes 50% of Blizzard, and snowsports industry's membership on the slopes (what is this "terrain park" thing?).

Blizzard continues to thrive and keep up with modern technology - a new computer, computer printed bus sheets (no more writing names on the bus!), and a calling service instead of the beloved "Blizzard Caller". Blizzard also begins to see second and third generation Blizzard kids on the slopes.

Our favorite memory while directing Blizzard is when we came to the realization that Blizzard is very much a family, and that we provide more than just ski and snowboard instruction.

We also realized that Blizzard offered much more than just skiing when we received a phone call at the office one Saturday night from a mother on her cell phone. Cell phones were quite new at the time and it seemed that those that used them while driving home only had issues to discuss! In fact, I could sense in her voice that she was near tears. However, imagine our surprise when she said she was just calling to THANK us. She said her child was very, very non-communicative and it was difficult to get much information about anything. She was calling to thank us because on the ride home her child could not stop talking about the day at Blizzard. By the end of the call we were all in tears!

Another unusual experience was at a gas station. A mechanic ran over calling Jay's name. It turns out he was on the bus that Jay rode when he first began teaching for Blizzard. Jay hadn't seen him in probably 15 years, and he said he wanted to thank Jay "for putting up with him." He said Blizzard was always the highlight of his week, and he knew he was a difficult child and appreciated what we did for him. Wow!

How much did it cost in '75? first-class stamp: gallon of regular gas: $0.77 $1.23 dozen eggs: gallon of milk:

1990-1999

Jay & Linda Rasula, Dwners 1992-2004

Significant events of the decade...

1980 The Titanic is found in the North Atlantic.

1981 IBM comes out with the first personal computer (PC).

1982 Steven Spielberg's E.T., The Extra-Terrestrial with Dee Wallace, Henry Thomas and Tootsie with Dustin Hoffman, Jessica Lange appear in theaters.

1983 Vanessa Williams becomes the first African American Miss America.

1985 On January 21 Ronald Reagan takes the oath of office for a second term. At 73 he is the oldest person ever to take the oath of office as President of the United States. 1986 Nintendo game is launched and becomes the new fad. Nintendo was founded in 1898 to manufacture playing cards. Nintendo systems cost $100 and game cartridges go for $35 to $40 each.

1987 Bill Gates becomes the first billionaire of the computer industry.

1988 Nearly 90,000 acres of Yellowstone National Park burn from a massive forest fire during the summer.

1989 Minnesota Timberwolves become an NBA team on November 13.

1984 Michael Jackson's hair catches fire during a Pepsi commercial. Big hair, heavy metal bands, and skiing on your 210cm straight skis down the slopes. The 80's were all about "big", and Blizzard was a part of that trend. The first big innovation was the Blizzard calendar. Blizzard ownership returned to the big daddy of the club. Blizzard and Hoigaards combined to be a big force on the slopes and in the industry. And, the biggest innovation of all, the first company computer.

The US Hockey Team won the Olympic Gold Medal on home turf. Snowboarding made its way into mainstream snowsports. Blizzard membership was around 1200 kids with locations from Rochester to St. Cloud. It was all big. It was all great! And, maybe, just maybe, one of those little kids on the slopes will be passionate enough about Blizzard to one day become an owner (foreshadowing...).

Blizzard has really provided the opportunity to develop meaningful friendships, which have lasted through the years. One that stands out is David Nelson. He has stuck with Blizzard the last 46 years. As Director of Skiing he is the glue of the instructor corps, dedicating countless years, days and hours maintaining the quality of skiing that has made Blizzard the best ski school anywhere. There are many other instructors and chaperones through the years who, with their participation, have contributed to Blizzard's success.

How much did it cost in 85? First-class stamp: $0.22 gallon of regular gas: $0.75 dozen eggs: $2.26 gallon of milk;

1980-1989

I really need to take my hat off to all those people I have been associated with over the years. For starters, it is the partnership of Jim Anderson, Jerry Barfuss, Bob Blix, Bill Horgan, Jim Sugimura and myself when we purchased Blizzard from LouAnne Carruthers. None of us had ever been involved in any such endeavor. Bill Horgan was appointed Director. He did an admirable job of keeping the office functioning until 1985, even though the ownership had changed three times.

> Italt & Mary Rasula, Owners 1966-1972, 1984-1992

Significant Blizzard Events 1986 First ever Blizzard yearbook calendar 1984 Walt and Mary Rasula bought Blizzard from Bill 1986 First Blizzard computer, software and printer purchased for the office for $4000. 1987 Hoigaard's Ski School merged with Blizzard Ski School Ithen I was in Blizzard, snowboarding had just started to come out and it was the first time Blizzard started to have snowboard lessons (I'm pretty sure My favorite memory of Blizzard is an Instructor Clinic in Blizzard was ahead of the curve with that . The top January of 1984 at Hild Mountain on a Sunday. It was level & can remember is becoming a "Low Black" -20 F with beautiful clear skies and one foot of snowboarder, because at that level you got a pin in-stead of a patch and I thought that was super cool! snow. He were the only people out there. He did figure eight contests until the snow was gone. Oh, and I met my wife, Denise, at Blizzard. Katy Gerdes, Blizzard kid in the 1980's; Blizzard instructor 2003-present ul Aasen, Blizzard instructor for nearly 30 years